Canadian Reunion at L. B. Dec. 18th What might be termed the "biggest and best" annual reunion ever sponsored by the affiliated American and Canadian Tourists' Association, will be held on Dec. 18 when some five to ten thousand past and present Canadians will assemble in Long Beach from all parts of California.

Honor guests invited to participate include Governor C. C. Young; Morley Drury, star athlete and former Canadian; Hon. R. G. Brett, former Governor of Alberta; Hon. H. H. Bell, M. P. and ex-Premier of Prince Edward Island; Col. H. A. Mullins, former member of Dominion Parliament; and the famous Major G. H. Schoff, noted hero of three wars and famous mounted police officer.

As host, the city of Long Beach has prepared a brilliant program of entertainment, including choir, glee clubs, soloists, instrumentalists and the famous 50-piece Long Beach Municipal Band, under the leadership of Herbert L. Clarke, who formerly conducted the Queen's Own Rifles 100-piece band for nine years.

Among the special features of the program is the appearance of Ivan Edwards, Canadian tenor and formerly of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, who will sing Canada's national anthem, "The Maple Leaf Forever," in his uniform as Major G. H. Schoff, noted hero of three wars and an eloquent speaker of national fame and popularity among Canadians, is also of great interest. Numerous other prominent former officials from Canadian Provinces are also scheduled to appear.

According to President John Hooper, the meeting will officially begin at 12:00 noon in the Municipal Auditorium, when a luncheon will be served on the picnic deck to be followed by registry and reception of visitors. An invitation is extended to all individuals, past or present Canadians, as well as to all Canadian social clubs in California to attend this monster gathering as honor guests and assist in receiving their "folks from the old home town."

At 2:00 the club session began with the singing of "America, the Beautiful" by the club, with Mrs. J. V. Murray, music chairman, at the piano. Mrs. Catherine Rasmussen, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, led the flag salute.

Mrs. John Sterns Thayer, federation extension secretary, speaker of the afternoon was introduced by Mrs. J. A. Stone, federation secretary of the club. Mrs. Thayer was presented with a beautiful corsage bouquet.

Mrs. Al Price, conservation chairman, read Assembly Bill No. 189, and asked the club to endorse it. This the club voted to do.

The bill read as follows: Assembly Bill No. 189, Chapter 318. An act to amend section three hundred-eight-four of the Penal Code, relating to the protection of the Christmas red berry and the Christmas tree.

(Approved by the Governor, May 2, 1927).

The people of the state of California do enact as follows: Section 1. Section 384a of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

384a. Any person, firm or corporation who shall willfully or negligently mutilate, cut or destroy any Toyonor Christmas Redberry (Hetermeles arbutifolia) or cut any Christmas tree or trees growing on public land or land not his own, without the written permit from the owner of the land, signed by such owner or his agent duly authorized in writing to grant such authority, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Women's Club Sees Articles Made at the California Hut

As one entered the Women's Clubhouse Wednesday afternoon, the spirit of Christmas was distinctly felt. On a long table in the lobby was a table filled with many objects suitable for Christmas gifts. These articles were from the California Hut, the work of those who went "Over There" and are not in a condition to earn their living in the workaday world.

This table was in charge of Mrs. A. W. Greiner of the American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. Nicholas I. Coleman, manager of the California Hut and Mrs. Grace Kipp, president of the California Hut. The table was so well patronized that those in charge of it were compelled to go back to the Hut for more articles for the sale to be held next day at the Wurlitzer Music store.

Festoons of Christmas greens were draped from the center lights to the four corners of the room. The side lights held bunches of Christmas berries and large wreaths. The club is indebted to the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs for the decorations. The stage was decorated with baskets of Christmas greens, and after the luncheon the miniature decorated Christmas trees in their red pots were placed on the stage in front of the baskets of greens.

The luncheon tables carried out the same idyllic and cozy feeling were by potpourris and the center pieces were small Christmas trees decorated with silver tinsel and ornaments. The pots were covered with red crepe paper.

Before the luncheon Mrs. L. G. Danford played the doxology. During the luncheon two skits from "The Fire Prince," an opera-etta to be given by the Junior High School at the high school auditorium Friday night, were given.

Mrs. Nicholas I. Coleman, president of the California Hut, gave a brief outline of the work of the Hut in helping to re-establish disabled veterans. She recalled the promises made when they went away and said that we could redeem those promises in some measure by patronizing the Hut and thus helping those who work for it. There are fifty-six workers in the shop and eighty-six men who are confined to their homes. Mrs. Coleman asked the club women to help them help themselves by buying their work.

Mrs. Nellie Stevenson has been appointed public health chairman for the Torrance club.

At 2:00 the club session began with the singing of "America, the Beautiful" by the club, with Mrs. J. V. Murray, music chairman, at the piano. Mrs. Catherine Rasmussen, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, led the flag salute.

Jack Atkins Goes Christmas Shopping

Nine year old Jack Atkins of 1608 Walnut street created a lot of excitement Tuesday evening, when he disappeared for several hours. The lad told his grandfather that he was going to help the janitor at the Orange street school, and when he had not returned home at 9 o'clock, neighbors and local officers joined in a search for the boy.

A telephone call brought Miss Jellison from Gardena, with keys to the school. A thorough search was made—no sign of Jack.

Along about 10 o'clock, Jack strolled home—he had inspected the Christmas displays in Lomita, and then walked to Torrance, and had a wonderful time window shopping.

Mrs. Higginson offered to take the place of Mrs. A. H. Treadwell, as chairman of the January committee. Mrs. Treadwell has moved from Torrance.

Due to the absence of both the secretary, Mrs. Julia Neelands and the treasurer, Mrs. Emma Briney, Mrs. Archie Smith acted for both officers.

Mrs. S. C. Collins asked that those who donated jellies and jams for the ex-service men at Palo Alto to allow her to give them to the Children's Home at Burbank as the ex-service men at Palo Alto were washed looked after and did not need them.

The flower offering for the day was given to Mrs. Collins to send Christmas cards to be sent in the name of the club to the ex-service men at Palo Alto. This is the club's share in the Christmas work.
